

The Executive Board is delighted to announce the winner of the ESE Clinical Poster Prize competition held recently at the ESE congress in Brussels.

The competition was restricted to the five best clinical posters submitted by authors for the poster sessions at the congress as determined by members of the ESE Clinical Practice Committee. The full list of those selected by the Committee for entry in the competition can be seen at:

<http://www.e-s-e.eu/ese-biennial-congress/brussels2017/timetable/friday-hall5>

The prize that included a certificate and 250 Euros was awarded to:
A Dembinskaite

Details of the project:

*Dembinskaite A, Veberiene R, Machiulskiene V
LUHS, Faculty of Odontology, Department of Dental and Oral Pathology, Kaunas, Lithuania
Successful endodontic and surgical treatment of dens invaginatus with infected invagination and vital pulp: a case report.

The poster can be viewed and downloaded at:

<http://www.e-s-e.eu/ese-biennial-congress/brussels2017/absinfo/index.html>

Next opportunity to be selected - 2019 during the Vienna congress

For the full list of prize winners at the ESE Congress in Brussels – see:

<http://www.e-s-e.eu/ese-biennial-congress/brussels2017/prizes.html>