

European Society of Endodontology

The ESE is delighted to announce that Hal Duncan has been appointed to the Executive Board as Chair of the Membership Committee.

Hal officially takes up his new role on the Board on 1 January 2018. However, as Chair of the Membership Committee for some years he has already made a substantial impact on ESE activities. For example, he has overseen the recent introduction of the specialist membership category and has revised the process for applying for certified membership.

For specialist membership see:
